

At this point in my life, I'm about to get married and start my own family. I still need my Dad around but I've been given such a great foundation that I'll be ok.

However, my 16 year old brother needs my Dad. My Dad is his best friend. He has done everything and more for my brother than the average father. My brother idolizes him. My Dad's opinion and presence means more to my brother than anyone else.

I believe my brother is the most to be impacted by your decision today. He needs his father and best friend.

I thank you for taking the time to read this and respectfully ask that you take all these letters into consideration.

Sincerely,

Gina Degnan
